

TERRAZZCO® Brand Aggregates

Mother of Pearl Chips

GENERAL INFORMATION

Mother of Pearl is a common aggregate used in terrazzo known for its striking appearance and durability. The aggregate is an organic gemstone produced by some molluscs as a coating inside their shells. The luminous colors give Mother of Pearl its impressive beauty. Aggregates used within 500 miles of a project's site can contribute to LEED points.

APPLICATION

Mother of Pearl is suited for any general use of terrazzo. Ideal for floors, kitchen and bathroom countertops, and bathroom showers. Available in sizes #0 (1-3mm), #1 (3-6mm), and #2 (6-9mm).
